The United States moves the Court for an order continuing the arraignment date from May 15, 2019 to August 15, 2019 for the individual defendants, Stephen Chen, J.T. Ho, and Kenny Wang. The corporate defendants, United Microelectronics Corporation Inc. and Fujian Jinhua Integrated Circuit Co. Ltd., have already been arraigned and their next court date is on May 22, 2019 before Judge Maxine M. Chesney. All individual defendants have been served

1 with the summonses issued in the above-captioned case. Since then, the individual defendants, 2 who are foreign nationals, have retained attorneys in the United States. Those attorneys have 3 been in contact with government counsel and have sought additional time for arraignment in 4 order to travel to Taiwan and consult further with their respective client. Accordingly, the 5 United States requests that the initial appearance for the individual defendants, Stephen Chen, 6 J.T. Ho, and Kenny Wang be continued to August 15, 2019 before the San Francisco Duty
7 Magistrate. The United States is filing this motion ex parte since defense counsels for Stephen 8 Chen, J.T. Ho, and Kenny Wang have not made an appearance in this case yet.
